Installation Options

AAA State of Play offers installation services that come second to none. We offer nationwide service and ensure that we have everything needed to safely and securely put in your equipment. Whether you'd like to rely on our awesome installation service or do it yourself, the choice is yours. See our installation options below.

Full Installation

A professional installer will assemble the equipment according to manufacturer specifications. The installer is responsible for final completion of the playground.

Supervised Installation

A supervised installation requires the customer to provide all labor and tools for installing the equipment. A supervisor will provide valuable knowledge and help coordinate your volunteers effectively.

Customer Installation

The purchaser is responsible for the complete installation of the structure. Those who opt to install it themselves should consider availability and experience of volunteers. This is key to a successful self-installation.

AAA State of Play also offers maintenance services. We have multiple Certified Playground Safety Inspectors on hand to check your playground for any safety hazards or infrastructure concerns. Whether it's a loose bolt or cracked parts we will find the issues and give you the best plan to move forward with corrections.
